EIGHTEEN MARRIAGES.

City Point Negroes Take to Knives Over a Crap Game and Cut Each Other Severely-Residence Was Set on Fire.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

PETERSBURG, VA., September 1.—
The Knights of Pythias of Petersburg have led the State in the matter of increase in memorship for the past six menths. The two lodges in this city have appointed a committee of six to solicit names to form a company of Uniform Rank. One member alone has secured twenty-three names.

Robert Valentine and James Lumpkin, both negroes, living at City Point, fought over a game of "crap," Each negro cut the other severely. They have been sent on to the County Court for trial.

NUPTIAL RECORD.

During August, eighteen marriage leenses were issued in this city and forty-eight deeds recorded.

BETTER STREET CLEANING.

Committee Will Probably Take the Matter Up Soon.

It is thought that the matter of a better system of street cleaning for the city will soon be acted upon by the Committee on Health. Members of the Council say the work of street cleaning is too much for the Health Department, in addition to its other duties, and it seems highly probable that there will be a separate committee for this work, and a man in exclusive charge of the city hands and carts.
